Accidentally Shot

The tradegy enacted in our midst last Friday should be a solemn warning to all parents of young boys, to be careful how they allow them to go alone with guns. John Thomas Beale, 11 years old, son of Mr. Albert Beale, and a play fellow of Malcolm Booker, son of Mr.and Mrs. John Booker, took a gun, Friday, and went out to shoot crows; in some unexplained manner the little Beale boy got the shot intended for the crows. He was hurried to the Baptist Hospital in Lynchburg; but too late to do any good; the little body expired the same evening at 6:30 o'clock. It was a great shock to the community and how much more must it have been to the families involved. The little boy was laid to rest Sunday afternoon

The funeral service was conducted by Revs. Burnette and Sadler. Masses of lovely flowers were laid on his resting-place by loving hands. The bereaved father, brothers and sisters have the tenderest sympathy of the entire community.

Mrs. Nancy Scott

Mrs. Nancy Scott, sister of Rev. W. M. Thompson, who had been ill for some time, died last night in a Fredericksburg hospital. Her remains will be interred at South Boston tomorrow.

She is survived by one son, Jack, and Rev. Thompson, of this place, and several other brothers and sisters.

Oakville

Mrs. T. E. Owen is improving slowly.

Misses Edythe Martin and Thelma Gunter and Mr. John Gunter motored to Roanoke Saturday.

Miss. Mattie Moss is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. C. E. Abbitt.

Miss Pearl Coleman and Mr. Jack Preston visited Mrs. T. E. Owen Sunday evening.

Miss Carrie Martin spent last week-end with her parents here.

PAMPLIN

Rev. W. M. Thompson, of Appomattox, preached baccalaureate sermon here Sunday night. He is a clear, forceful speaker and his address was enjoyed by a large and appreciative audience. Thursday night a recital will be given by Miss Franklin's music class. Friday night the address will be made to graduates by a speaker from Farmville and diplomas will be presented by Rev. J. E. White.

Mr. William Carr, of Raleigh, is spending some time with his wife, who is sick at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Davis. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Rev. W. M. Thompson and Rev. and Mrs. J. E. White were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Terry Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Harvey were week-end guests of relatives at Phenix.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Marshall and Miss Anna Price were visitors in town Tuesday.

Cover on the Roots

When trees are shipped from a nursery their roots are covered with moist material, says the American Tree association of Washington, which will, for a stamp, send planting suggestions. Keep this covering around the roots until immediately before planting. The roots of the trees dug from the woodland should be similarly covered and protected.

Burke's Wise Words

I found in Burke, the other day, a passage from which I must often unconsciously have been quoting. Here's the pith of it: "Public duty demands and requires that what is right should not only be made known but be made prevalent; that what is evil should not only be detected but defeated." That, it seems to me, is no bad motto.—Woodrow Wilson.

Oil From Neat Cattle

Neatsfoot oil is the pale yellow fixed oil made by boiling the feet and shin bone of cattle. It consists almost wholly of olein and is used as a fine lubricant and as a leather dressing. Neat are cattle of the ox kind as distinguished from horses, sheep and goats.

Lesson for June 10
THE ARREST AND TRIAL

LESSON TEXT—Mark 14:43-15:15.
GOLDEN TEXT—He was despised, and rejected of men (Isa. 53:3).
PRIMARY TOPIC—How Friends Mob Treated Jesus.
JUNIOR TOPIC—The Trial of Jesus.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Trial of Jesus.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Jesus Facing His Enemies.

I. The Betrayal and Arrest (vv. 43-52).

1. The sign to the mob (vv. 43-47). With the basest hypocrisy Judas pointed out Jesus to the mob by a kiss, the sign of love.

2. Jesus forsaken by all (vv. 48-52). At the sight of His betrayal, one of Jesus' disciples attempted to defend Him by resorting to the sword, but seeing that He made no attempt at resistance they all fled. Their courage failed them in the hour of trial. How little man knows of his own weakness until the crucial hour comes.

II. Jesus Before the Sanhedrin (vv. 53-65).

1. Contradictory testimony of false witnesses (vv. 53-59).

The chief priests and all the council sought for witnesses against Jesus to put Him to death, but they found none because there was no unity of testimony. They accused Him of having declared that within three days He would build again the temple if it were destroyed.

2. The high priest's questions (vv. 60-65).

(1) "What is it that these witness against Thee?"

To this Jesus was silent, showing that no evidence had yet been given worthy of an answer.

(2) "Art thou the Christ?"

To this He definitely replied, "I am," and quoted a Scripture passage which they recognized as referring to the Messiah. This claim they answered with buffeting and the most shameful treatment.

III. Peter Denies His Lord (vv. 66-72).

Though Peter loved Jesus, yet in the hour of supreme trial he failed. Gretchen as his sin was, it was not like that of Judas. His failure was due to:

1. Boasting self-confidence (vv. 29-31).
2. Lack of watchfulness (v. 37).
3. Neglect of prayer (v. 38).
4. Service in the energy of the flesh (v. 47).
5. Following Jesus afar off (v. 54).
6. Seeking comfort among the Lord's enemies (v. 67, cf. Luke 22:55).
7. Open denial (vv. 68-72). His backsliding really began when he shrank from the cross.

IV. Jesus Arraigned Before Pilate (15:1-15).

In the early morning after the trial before the high priest they bound Jesus and delivered Him to Pilate. They acted freely in this according to the evil desires of their own hearts, yet He was delivered up by the determined counsel and foreknowledge of God (Acts 2:23). The Jews would gladly have killed Him, but they had not the authority to do so. They delivered Him to the Gentile governor, thus involving the Jews and the Gentiles in the crowning act of the world's sin. Pilate questioned Him without delay for they accused Him of pretending to be a king. "Thou sayest," was His only reply. To the slanderous accusations of the chief priests and elders He made no reply, to the utter astonishment of Pilate. Pilate sought to release Him because he was convinced of His innocence. After several unsuccessful efforts to escape responsibility, the expedient of letting the people choose between Barabbas and Jesus was resorted to. He no doubt thought that Jesus would be chosen rather than the notorious Barabbas.

Cast Thyself at His Feet

The fever of worldliness that burns in the blood, the ill-temper, the unkindness, the impatience, the dreadful malady of avarice that turns the heart to stone, the dim vision of Himself, the fretting fear, the foolish envy—how loathsome in His sight is that of which we make so little! Cast thyself at His feet until He make thee clean!—Mark Guy Pearse.

Our Obedience

God wants work of us. He offers His power to us if we will work with Him. Greater deeds than have ever been done do not wait upon His willingness but upon our obedience.—Robert E. Speer.

Joy

"Joy is there if we will set ourselves to find it—joy in labor, joy in love, joy in the beauty of earth around us, joy that waits like a hidden well to bubble up in hearts that are open to it."

No Sorrow Too Great

No sorrow is too great to endure if it reveals to us some new beauty in Christ, or brings out in us some new feature of Christlikeness.—J. R. Miller.

LIST OF DON'TS OFFERED COEDS

Easier to Tell Women What Not to Do.

Rochester, N. Y.—Feeling that it is easier to tell a woman "what not to do" than "what to do," members of the men's college of the University of Rochester have assumed the role of big brother to their fair sisters of the women's college.

Through the medium of the Campus, college undergraduate publication, the men are offering their advice to all coeds—free.

Some advice has been offered in the following list of "don'ts," which appeared in the Campus:

Don't look over our shoulder to read our newspaper. Go buy one—they only cost a few cents.

Don't say you "just adore" any girl who is your rival.

Don't accept an invitation to have a sandwich and then order a whole meal.

Don't keep us waiting more than a half hour, especially when a to-be-paid-for chariot awaits without.

On the way to a picture show, don't rave about what a wonderful musical comedy is in town.

Don't say you are reducing—and then eat everything in sight.

Don't ask us whether or not to let your hair grow.

Don't explain that you know it's bad form, but that you just like to chew gum, anyway.

Don't poise your cigarette gracefully and then puff the smoke out before you have time to taste it.

Don't quote a beautiful and serious moment in a play just because you can't understand it.

Don't be afraid to accept a date at the last minute, especially when you want it. We know we're supposed to think you're popular.

Don't be avidly interested in the things you say about you.

Say everything is "cute" if you must, but if you care for us, don't be facetious and say everything is "ki-ute."

Ox-Wagon Fortress

Laager is a term that was first applied by the Boers of South Africa to a defensive camp improvised out of ox-wagons. The wagons were arranged in a circle together, with the wheels so as to form a continuous rampart.

National Legislators

Members of the house of representatives representing the southern states are usually natives or at least born south of the Mason and Dixon line. Western members very frequently are those who have come from other parts of the country and aided in upbuilding the younger states.

Harvey Memorial

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear son, Percy, who departed this life three years ago to-day, June 3, 1925.

In the graveyard safely sleeping, where the flowers gently wave, lies the one I loved so dearly, in the lone and silent grave; peaceful be thy rest dear Percy, It is sweet to breathe thy name, in life I loved you darling, in death I do the same.

Dearest Percy you are not forgotten
Never shall your memory fade
Sweetest thoughts shall ever linger
Around the grave where you are laid—Mother.

Suffering With SICK HEADACHES

Mr. Charles P. Todd, of Estesburg near Waynesburg, Ky.,says: "I was suffering with nervous headaches. About once a week I would have these headaches, and have to quit work, and go to bed for about twenty-four hours. I would have pains in my neck, and right behind my right ear.

"A merchant at Estesburg told me to try taking Black-Draught, which I did.

"It relieved me. From that time on, I would take Black-Draught as soon as I felt like I was going to have one of those headaches—and they wouldn't come on.

"Every few weeks, I take three or four doses of Black-Draught, and I feel so well, and do my work, and don't lose any more time with headache."
